GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. It is the responsibility of all exhibitors and their representatives / employees to read and understand all the terms and contained herein. No indulgences will be considered.
2. The event commences on Saturday 9 September 2023 at 10am. Exhibitors will be allowed to set up their exhibits from Friday 8 September 2023 at 9am. All exhibitors must have removed their exhibit and have their area of exhibit cleared after the event. Please note that extra security will only be on the premises until Monday at 10:00. All exhibit areas are to be left in the condition they were found, clean and tidy. Failure to do so will result in a possible fine.
3. The organisers will make every endeavour to hold the exhibition on the dates stipulated. In the event of postponement or cancellation of the event, the organisers retain the right to cancel the agreement with the exhibitor and shall not be liable for any loss or damages incurred by the exhibitor thereof. If the organiser cancels the event for reasons other than a breach of agreement by the exhibitor, all amounts paid by the exhibitor will be refunded in full in terms of the agreement. The organiser shall not be liable for claims resulting from an act of nature, municipal restrictions, strikes, floods, earthquakes or any natural disaster.
4. Registration will take place on Friday 8 September 2023 from 10:00 at the venue and will close at 18:00 on the same day. Exhibitors will receive a schedule as well as two access cards per exhibit during registration. Extra access cards will be supplied at a cost of R100 per card per day - limited to 2x Cards per stand. Each exhibit area will be allocated one parking bay in front of the festival premises. Please indicate whether you would need more parking space.
5. Allocation of exhibit space is strictly on a first come, first serve basis. The exhibition space will only be confirmed upon receipt of completed application form and full payment. A reference number to be used in all communication will be allocated upon receipt of completed application form and proof of payment. No verbal or telephonic bookings of exhibition space will be accepted by the organizer.
6. Exhibitors are strictly prohibited to sub-let or transfer any stand or portion of their stand to any third party without the permission of the organizer.
7. It is illegal to serve any alcohol to any person under the age of 18, whether for tasting, pairing or sale purposes. Each exhibitor is to ensure that no alcohol is to be served to persons under the age of 18. Failure to do so may result in criminal prosecution and forfeiting the opportunity to further take part in the festival, or any future events arranged by the organiser.

8. The festival hours are as follows:

Friday 8 September from 9:00 to 18:00 registration at the venue .

Set-up time: Friday from 9:00 till late.

All exhibitors have to be set up and ready by no later than 09:00 on the day of the event.

Break down time: Food stalls may break down from 20:00 on Sunday 10 September.

9. Exhibition stands need to be manned at all times during the festival hours.

10. The cost of the exhibition space does include one standard electrical outlet. There will be limited three-phase electrical points available. The organiser will not supply extension cords, should an exhibitor require the use of an extension cord, it remain their responsibility to ensure that all connections are safe, water proofed and covered where necessary.

11. Exhibitions are to be of a high standard and compliment the look and feel of the festival. Set up in such a manner as to not block any lights, walk ways, or to be a hindrance to any other exhibitor or their exhibit area. It remains the responsibility of each exhibitor to ensure easy public access to their stand as well as neighboring stands at all times.

12. It is expected of all exhibitors to keep their stall clean and tidy at all times.

13. Exhibitors shall be allowed to distribute posters, pamphlets or brochures in their exhibit space. Exhibitors wishing to distribute marketing material to the festival goers need to arrange with the organizer to have the material included in a welcome package to be handed out to the festival goer at the entrance.

14. No offensive or dangerous articles, weapons, explosives or ammunition will be allowed on the festival premises. The organizer reserve the right to remove any article deemed offensive or dangerous.

15. There will be security personnel patrolling the festival grounds, but it remains the responsibility of each exhibitor to secure their own exhibition area and to ensure that all valuables are looked after during, and packed away securely outside of the festival hours. Neither the organizer nor the venue will be held liable or responsible for loss or damages of any nature whatsoever.

16. All machinery and/or equipment with movable or fragile parts need to be secured and it remains the responsibility of the exhibitor that no festival goer can be harmed by their machinery or equipment.

17. Each exhibitor, individual or company, exhibit at their own risk. It is a condition that they exempt the organizer and the venue of any legal action resulting from loss or injury suffered by any reason whatsoever. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor that they comply with all legislation where applicable.

18. The organiser retains the right to make changes to the festival grounds and layout of stalls at their discretion without prior notice.

19. Exhibitors selling food products must be in possession of a current certificate from the health department or local municipality stating that they comply with rules and regulations. In the event of an exhibitor committing a breach of this agreement, the organiser shall be entitled to the remedies it has at law, including the cancellation of this agreement without further notice to claim and recover damages and costs from the defaulting exhibitor.

This agreement, together with the application to exhibit, constitute the whole agreement between the parties, and no warranties or representations which may have been made verbally and not recorded shall be valid or enforceable.

By affixing their signature hereto, the exhibitor acknowledges that they have read and understood and regard themselves bound by the terms and conditions contained herein.
